MICHAEL MCGIRR

Founder/Managing Attorney of Phocus Law - Counsel and Trusted Advisor to Businesses throughout the Southwest.

Michael J. "Mick" McGirr founded Phocus Law in 2017, after spending the better part of a decade practicing law at regional firms. Mick provides his clients, primarily businesses and business owners, with a broad and thorough range of legal representation. Through his extensive legal experience and his own forays into entrepreneurship, Mick is able to provide preeminent, thoughtful advice to his clients in business matters ranging from commercial real estate transactions to corporate finance and investment, and from entity formation and structuring to regulatory compliance. Mick has built out a team at Phocus Law that provides top-notch legal services for any needs that may arise in the business, litigation, or estate planning areas.

Mick completed his undergraduate study in Political Science at Brigham Young University – Hawaii, where he also competed as a NCAA Division 2 golfer. Mick received his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, D.C. Mick is a member of the Arizona Bar, the Maricopa County Bar Association, and the J. Reuben Clark Law Society. He frequently teaches and lectures to various trade groups on a variety of business and legal topics.

When not at the office or in court, Mick enjoys spending time with his wife and kids, playing golf or basketball, and being outdoors. Mick is also active in the classic car restoration and drag-racing communities, working on and racing his 1969 Camaro and other project vehicles.
